November Sermons

November 4, 2018

Sermon Service: Praise & Worship Service

Synopsis: Join us as for this special Praise and Worship Service as we praise our Lord and Savior through music, through Scripture, and through testimony.

November 11, 2018

Sermon Title: "You Make Me Sick"

Scripture: Revelation 3:15-16

Synopsis: We don't often think about God getting sick. However, in the Book of Revelation, God reveals to us that He has a weak stomach. His stomach sickness has nothing to do with eating spoiled food or catching a nasty bug. His stomach virus is directly related to our behavior. So that we do not make God nauseous, we need to learn to live a healthy and obedient life.

November 18, 2018

Sermon Title: "A Thanksgiving Invitation"

Scripture: Psalm 100:1-5

Synopsis: Often when people have a party they send out an invitation. Well, God is having a Thanksgiving Party and He has sent you an invitation. He has sent you an invitation to come into His presence. He has sent you an invitation to worship Him. He has sent you an invitation to praise Him. He has sent you an invitation to attend His Thanksgiving Party.

November 25, 2018

Sermon Title: "God Smiled at Me"

Scripture: Genesis 6:9-22

Synopsis: When someone displays a smile, it is usually a sign of happiness and approval. We don't often think about it, but God likes to smile. His smile is displayed when we are obedient. When Noah was faithful in building the massive ark, God smiled on him. Today, God wants to smile on us, but to obtain that smile, we too must learn to be obedient and faithful.
